

Lindsay Kipnis MS, LGC

Genetic Counselor

Biography

Lindsay received her MS in Genetic Counseling from Brandeis University in 2013. After graduating she worked in oncology at Women & Infants Hospital in Rhode Island. She joined the Center for Cancer Genetics and Prevention at DFCI in 2014. Lindsay is focused on ensuring that all ovarian cancer patients receive the genetic counseling and testing that is recommended.

Background

Board Certification

American Board of Genetic Counselors, 2013

Education

MS, Genetic Counseling, Brandeis University, 2013

Locations

DFCI Longwood Campus, Boston, MA

Eastern Maine Medical Center, Bangor, ME (telegenetics)