

Alison Robertson, MS, LGC

Genetic Counselor

Biography

Ali received her MS in Genetic Counseling from Boston University School in 2017. She joined the Center for Cancer Genetics and Prevention at DFCI in 2017. She provides genetic counseling services to adult patients across a wide range of specialties. Ali has particular interests in improving access to genetic counseling services among diverse groups and improving genetic health education among the public.

Background

Board Certification

American Board of Genetic Counselors, 2017

Education

MS, Genetic Counseling, Boston University School of Medicine, 2017

Locations

DFCI Longwood Campus, Boston, MA

DFCI at St. Elizabeth's Medical Center, Boston, MA (telegenetics)

DFCI at South Shore Hospital, South Weymouth, MA (telegenetics)