

Dana-Farber
Cancer Institute

Christine Lilienfeld, RN, BSN

Oncology Nurse Navigator, Gastrointestinal Cancer Center

Biography

Christine began working at Dana-Farber Cancer Institute in 1989 as an inpatient nurse. In 1994 she moved to the outpatient clinic as an infusion nurse. In 1999 she started working in the Gastrointestinal Cancer Center as an Oncology Nurse Navigator where she participates in the day-to-day operations of the program including patient education and call triage.

Background

Education

Elms College, Chicopee, MA

Bachelor of Science in Nursing, 1987