

Dana-Farber
Cancer Institute

Leslie Yankos RN, BSN

Oncology Nurse Navigator, Gastrointestinal Cancer Center

Biography

Leslie began working at the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute in 1984 as a nursing assistant. Upon graduating she accepted a position as an inpatient nurse. In 2004 she transitioned to the outpatient setting as a research nurse with the Sarcoma and Bone Oncology Division. She has also worked as an IV Access Nurse at the Yawkey Center. In 2020 she returned to the Gastrointestinal Cancer Center as an Oncology Nurse Navigator, a role she previously held for seven years. She participates in the day-to-day operations of the program including call triage and patient education.

Background

Education

Hartwick College, Oneonta, NY

Bachelor of Science in Nursing, 1985