

Dana-Farber Cancer Institute

Mark Sawin, BSN, RN

Clinical Research Nurse, Gastrointestinal Cancer Center

Biography

Mark joined Dana-Farber in 2018 as a Clinical Research Nurse in the Newly Licensed Nurse (NLN) Residency Program. As part of the NLN Program, Mark completed rotations at the Dana-Farber Inpatient Hospital and in the Multiple Myeloma, Gynecologic and Neuro-Oncology disease centers, before transitioning full-time to the Gastrointestinal Cancer Center in 2019. Prior to becoming a registered nurse, Mark spent nearly a decade working in special education.

Background

Education

Northeastern University, Boston, MA

Bachelor of Science, Nursing

University of Massachusetts, Boston, MA

Bachelor of Science, Exercise and Health

Industry Associations

Oncology Nurse Society