

Dana-Farber
Cancer Institute

Hillary D. Repucci

Senior Director, Principal and Major Gifts
Division of Philanthropy

Biography

Hillary joined Dana-Farber in 2014 and partners with faculty and leadership to raise philanthropic support for the Center for Gastrointestinal Oncology. She has spent the majority of the past 19 years in the nonprofit sector working with philanthropists. A Boston native, Hillary has managed development programs in higher education and independent schools, including Boston College and Phillips Academy Andover. Hillary spent several years at State Street Global Advisors leading sales for their Charitable Asset Management Group. Hillary earned a Bachelor of Arts from Georgetown University, and Master of Business Administration from Boston College.

Background

Education

Boston College, Chestnut Hill, MA
Master of Business Administration, 2005

Georgetown University, Washington, DC
Bachelor of Arts in Psychology, 2001

Contact

Phone: 617-632-6481

Email: HillaryD_Repucci@dfci.harvard.edu