

Dana-Farber
Cancer Institute

Sarah Hindenach, RN, BSN, OCN

Clinical Research Nurse, Gynecologic Oncology

Biography

Sarah has worked as a Clinical Research Nurse in the Gynecologic Oncology Program at Dana-Farber Cancer Institute since 2018. Prior to this, she was a Registered Nurse in the Thoracic Surgery Unit at Brigham and Women's Hospital where she took care of many oncology patients undergoing surgical treatment. She serves as a steering committee member for the Newly Licensed Nurse Residency Program. She is interested in increasing access to innovative oncologic and medical care for women and at-risk populations in the community.

Background

Board Certification

Massachusetts Board of Registration in Nursing: Registered Nurse
Oncology Nursing Certification Corporation: Oncology Certified Nurse

Education

Northeastern University, Bouvé College of Health Sciences, School of Nursing
Bachelor of Science in Nursing

Industry Associations

Sigma Theta Tau Honor Society of Nursing
International Association of Clinical Research Nurses