

FELLOW: Benson M. George, MD, PhD
HOMETOWN: East Meadow, NY
MEDICAL SCHOOL: Stanford
RESIDENCY: BWH

Benson is originally from East Meadow, NY, obtained a BS in Biology at MIT, obtained an MD and PhD from Stanford University, and completed his residency in Internal Medicine at Brigham and Women's Hospital. He conducted his thesis work in Irv Weissman's laboratory, where he investigated immunotherapeutic approaches for conditioning prior to hematopoietic stem cell transplant. While at BWH, he has been conducting basic science research with Ryan A. Flynn's laboratory, investigating the cell surface proteome of leukemia.

Outside of work, he enjoys rehabbing his surgically repaired ACL, being married, hanging out with his cat (Percy), and proudly cheering for New York sports teams.
