

Emma Green, MSW
Program Manager, Cancer Care Equity Program

Biography

Emma is from Lowell, MA, and serves as the Program Manager for the Cancer Care Equity Program. She has a Master's degree in Social Work from the University of Washington and extensive work experience in health care strategic planning and project management.

Emma takes a collaborative, multidisciplinary approach to program development, and is committed to advancing health equity through organizational infrastructure and operations.

Locations

Dana-Farber Longwood Campus, Boston, MA