

Sarah Pohl, MPH*Research Assistant, Cancer Care Equity Program*Biography

Sarah is passionate about public health research and program implementation — specifically, bridging the gaps among lifestyle, policy, and health — to mitigate non-communicable diseases within marginalized communities.

Sarah earned both MPH and BS degrees in Public Health from the George Washington University. When she's not working, Sarah loves to cook, hike, and spend time with family and friends.

Locations

Dana-Farber Longwood Campus, Boston, MA